Deni Streltsov

Software Engineer

👤 Profile

So I am currently first year student in Computer Science degree,but I am really curious in programming and studying new things. I use C/C++ with Boost and I used projects with RtAudio, PortAudio, LibsndFile. I really like to low-level stuff and to understand complex things. If you are searching for someone who will grow quickly and produce lots of benefits, so invite me to the inteview.)))

🎓 Education

Computer Science, University of Hertfordshire, Hatfield

October 2021 — June 2024

I am studing in Hertfordshire uni, but I want to notice that I am mostly self-educated and most of time I study things myself following my own curriculum.

Hobbies

So I recently started learning math and physics as the hobbies,because I love to learn how all wheels in the system work. And I love to learn programming itself, because it is my passion.
